

REST HOUSES IN MILAN.

Red Cross Will Take Over Stations to Accommodate Hundreds.
Four large rest houses, accommodating 200 to 300 soldiers daily, have been officially turned over to the American Red Cross in Milan, Italy, according to advices received at national headquarters of the Red Cross. Milan is a British and French as well as an Italian base, and hundreds of thousands of the Allied armies change trains there daily.

These rest stations, which provide sleeping accommodations as well as recreation for soldiers, are the first to be established at this point.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure any one; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease. Advt.

Readers of this Paper.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. LAGAPENNE JURY FINDS HIM GUILTY IN CRUGER CASE

Detective Convicted of Neglect of Duty—McGee to Be Tried Next.

John L. Lagapenne, a detective, formerly attached to the Fourth Branch Bureau, was convicted last night by a jury before Supreme Court Justice Goff of neglect of duty in the search for Ruth Cruger, whose body lay undiscovered four months in the cellar of Alfredo Cocchi's motorcycle repair shop, where it had been buried.

The jury deliberated four hours. The offense is a misdemeanor, punishable by an indeterminate sentence to the penitentiary for not more than three years or by a fine. Lagapenne will be sentenced after the trial of Detective Francis McGee. The latter was called to the bar immediately after Lagapenne's conviction.

The specific allegation in the case of Lagapenne was that he had failed to make to his superior officers reports received by him to the effect that Cocchi's character was bad so far as women were concerned. Despite these reports, the detective had spoken highly of the Italian, it was testified.

When the court clerk started to call the roll of the talemens summoned for the McGee trial the first name called was that of Henry D. Cruger, father of the murdered girl. Mr. Cruger was not in court and, after his identity had been disclosed, Justice Goff ordered that the name be taken off the list.

"WAR TO FINISH" IS KEYNOTE AT MICHIGAN FEAST

New York Society of Former Wolverine Mingles Patriotism With Annual Dinner.

Whenever the Michigan Society of New York gets together you can wager your last ten of Kimberly Koal that something happens. And after the clans gathered last night at the Astor for their annual dinner and listened to some real Wolverine oratory they were about ready to challenge every one of the other dedicated States in patriotism and loyalty in service to the Government of the United States.

The Michigans are natives of the Middle Western habit that lies somewhat north of Chicago, a section of the country that has produced many statesmen, financiers and men of industry. When you read the illustrious names that will shortly follow the statement will be fully borne out. But, after all, each one of them owes some sort of allegiance to New York, and they don't hesitate to admit it.

Bob Ingersoll was there with Mrs. Ingersoll. And he brought his brother, C. H. Ingersoll. Bob is getting along in years, but still able to carry one of his "dollar watches" and bear up. It was a great pleasure to the Michigans to have him there. The pioneer time builder sat at a table that was unostentatious, enjoying every stage of the programme, and patriotically applauding Pat Kelley, Congressman-at-large from the Wolverine State, and Charlie Towne, at one time holding a seat in the National Senate, both silver-tongued orators, vent words of terrible invective upon the Kaiser's softening hand.

FIGHTING FOR ALL THAT IS WORTH WHILE.
When John Jay Bush, the President, arose to make his opening address, he was fortified to the extent that he was amongst friends. And Johnnie made a rattling good speech, so good in fact that the Michigans thundered applause until he was forced to read from a copious pile of notes and cut off an address that was none too long.

"We are not fighting," he said, "the battle of England, France and Italy. We are fighting for God and home and native land; for democracy, decency and civilization and for all those things which make life worth living; for the integrity of treaties and the sanctity of international agreements; for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as guaranteed by our Constitution, that great proclamation of American rights and liberties."

Well said, John. It's the true spirit of your State, and your own only son, whom you have given to the cause, will battle to a victorious end with the right spirit in his heart.

After being properly introduced,

Mr. Gompers and Secretary of the Navy Daniels will speak to-night at a meeting under the auspices of the Alliance in the Lexington Theatre, Lexington Avenue and 42nd Street.

There were many interesting features of the entertainment, but none more so than the exquisite dancing of eight-year-old Ethel Smith, who bids fair to grow up into a rival of Russia's girl of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The officials were William Lavery, President and Harry McFadden, Treasurer. Patrick P. Gallagher, Vice-President, and Stanley Campbell, Secretary.

Price Limit Fixed for Trading in Cattle and Poultry.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—At a special meeting of the Board of Trade Directors last night it was decided to put a maximum price of five cents a bushel on all oats contracts for future delivery. It also was ruled that yesterday's closing prices for hog products should be the maximum figures for those commodities.

This action was taken to put a stop to the sensational advances in prices for oats and provisions. The maximum price for provisions of eight cents for May pork; $26.87 for May lard; $26.25 for May ribs; and $24.50 for July ribs.

The Food Administration announced that it has decided to permit the bakers of the country to offer for sale a three-quarter-pound loaf of bread, to accommodate families whose daily consumption of bread is less than one pound.

PENNELL SCORNS DEGREE.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—Joseph Pennell, noted artist, has refused to accept the degree of doctor of letters, scheduled to be conferred on him to-day by the University of Pennsylvania.

This development came as the result of a tilt between Mr. Pennell and the university, which he had recently left. The artist declined either "now or at any future time to accept anything from and by the university."

REVISED FINANCE BILL IS SENT TO THE SENATE.
Is Reported Out by Committee and May Be Taken Up for Consideration Monday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The War Finance Corporation bill has been reported favorably by the Senate Finance Committee. The vote of the committee was unanimous, and Chairman Simmons said he would try to bring the measure up for consideration on Monday.

With the approval of Secretary McAdoo, the bill has been amended so as to take away many of the powers granted to him which met with serious objection.

The authority to name the board of directors of the corporation which was to be put in the Secretary's hands, has been removed. Ten members of the board are to be named by the President and nine by the Senate.

The committee also amended the bill so as to limit direct loans to be made in exceptional cases to railroads, public utilities or mining organizations necessary to the prosecution of the war, and which, in the judgment of the directors, are of exceptional importance to the public interests.

WESTCHESTER NOTES.
Justice Isaac N. Mills of the Appellate Division, who has been laid up by an attack of neuritis at his Mount Vernon home, is out again.

Harry Drummond Brown, private secretary to Justice Mills for several years, has been appointed a clerk in the Appellate Division.

Following the plan of former Warden Thomas Mott Osborne of Sing Sing in organizing the Mutual Welfare League, an organization has been formed by the inmates of the Westchester Reformatory Penitentiary. The first election was held yesterday and Warren Jordan, a Peeks-kill attorney, convicted of forgery, was chosen as Chief Justice of the inmates' court.

Justice and Mrs. J. Addison Young of New Rochelle have gone to Holyoke to visit their daughter, who is in school there. Justice Young's place in school terms is being filled by Justice Mott.

MUNICIPAL COAL RESERVE PLAN IS DOUBTFUL HERE

But Mr. Snead Hopes to Find Ways to Assure Full Supply Next Year.

The question of a municipal coal reserve may be settled to-day when the conference is resumed between L. A. Snead, representing National Fuel Administrator Gardfield, and fuel officials and dealers of New York. Mr. Snead has already been to several cities, and goes West from here. When he has covered every important section of the country and returned to Washington he will begin working out a programme for each section.

The plan is to get as much coal into storage next summer as possible. The movement will be carried to the cellars of consumers, no distribution may be kept up during the slack months and so there may be no excessive demands upon railroad or truck transportation in the fall. In April and May there is every reason to expect such a rush of orders the dealers may not be able to cope with them.

Mr. Snead hopes also to establish in each principal city a "municipal reserve," for use in possible stringency. He said to-day that this did not mean that the Fuel Administration would go into the coal business. At the mines anthracite is measured in long tons, of 2,240 pounds. Bituminous coal has always been measured in short tons, of 2,000 pounds. But prices fixed by the Fuel Administration are based on the measurements at the mine, by which the dealers buy.

One of the matters Mr. Snead will consider is the "wheat-on" basis on which anthracite dealers do business. At the mines anthracite is measured in long tons, of 2,240 pounds. Bituminous coal has always been measured in short tons, of 2,000 pounds. But prices fixed by the Fuel Administration are based on the measurements at the mine, by which the dealers buy.

But anthracite dealers, having bought long tons, sell short tons. The prices they charge consumers are based on the prices they themselves pay, and, theoretically, the margin is small. But for every 2,000-pound ton the dealer sells he has 240 pounds left. On every carload he buys he has between four and five tons of this "wheat-on" coal. If he sells at $10 a ton, the usual rate in New York City, this means that after he has taken the fair profit contemplated by the Fuel Administration he has from $35 to $45 for his twelve tons.

Mr. Director W. B. Pollock's report for the 24 hours ended at 9 A. M. yesterday showed 25,341 tons of anthracite towed to the city and 24,804 tons of bituminous, with 17,776 tons of anthracite and 20,311 tons of bituminous ready for towing. Within 24 hours of 11 o'clock were 1,256 cars of anthracite and 121 carloads of bituminous; within 48 hours were 482 carloads of anthracite and 120 carloads of bituminous.

With low temperatures and high water at many points interfering seriously, the railroads of the East have made further reductions in freight above normal. Eastbound loads were reduced by 1,763, to 37,147. Westbound loads increased by 1,138, to 24,798. Westbound empties decreased by 677, to 16,721, and Eastbound empties increased by 490, to 4,244.

Matthew Clarke, a driver for Burns Brothers, coal dealers, was arrested at Houston Street and made the delivery yesterday by Traffic Policeman Gildea for being on the left side of the driveway.

"You don't have to worry about you people; we have orders from the boss not to take summonses," Clark told Gildea, who thereupon took him to Essex Market Court.

Magistrate Nolan fined Clark $2 for disorderly conduct, and Gildea took him to the Traffic Court, where Magistrate House fined him $1 for disobeying the rules of the road.

Clark admitted he had flouted Gildea, but argued that Mayor Hylan's order giving street trucks the right of way freed him from obedience to traffic rules.

PLAN OUTDOOR DRILL FOR ORDNANCE MEN

Students in the School at Columbia to Be Uniformed Hereafter.

Lieut. J. L. Dohr, U. S. Ordnance Reserve Corps, in charge of the Government Ordnance School at Columbia University, said to-day that the students will be uniformed and drilled daily on South Field.

The Ordnance Department enlists men for field service and trains them for six weeks at ten universities. Men who have had a college education or considerable business experience are wanted.

The sixty-five men taking the course are instructed in handling supplies supplemented by frequent visits to industrial plants.

An entrance fee of $10 is charged. All those in the course receive $15 a month. At the expiration of his theoretical course the ordnance student is sent to an arsenal to study routine methods and apply his knowledge of accounting. After three months he becomes eligible for a commission.

French is taught to the soldiers by the Department of Extension Teaching. They have the use of the gymnasium and libraries.

Lieut. Dohr hopes to increase his class to 100 men. Prospective students may get information in the Pulitzer School of Journalism Building, room 555.

REVEALS BIG I. W. W. PLOT.

Reds Planned to Poison Cattle and Star Conflagrations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Alleged I. W. W. plots to poison cattle and burn grain, farm houses and lumber mills along the Pacific Coast were revealed in a confession to-day by Fritz Hagerman, alias Charles Asenbach, who said he had participated in some of the actions proposed, according to officials of the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Pacific.

They say that Hagerman, who was arrested in Susanville, admitted he had set fire to a lumber mill in Lassen County last September, and that when arrested he was on his way back to the plant, which he intended to fire again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't say gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it deters the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it deters so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking on small strands at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advt.
